

Financial Literacy Resources

Resource Link	About Resource
Money Smart for Young People	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Free Pre-k to 12th grade curriculum and resources developed by the FDIC • Curriculum includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Lessons for Teachers ○ Materials for lessons ○ Ideas for grade-level modification ○ Real-life exercises and examples ○ Suggestions for books and online games and tools that reinforce learning ○ Ideas to cross-curricular integration
Organizing Reality Fairs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The FDIC created a Guide to Organizing a Reality Fair – an expo style event that provides youth with an interactive experience for making real world financial decisions
Hands on Banking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A financial education program that can help families learn more about money management provided by Wells Fargo • Topics for families <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Banking ○ Credit and Loans ○ Money management ○ Investing ○ Retirement • Topic for high school students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Deciding what's next ○ Education options ○ Financial aid for higher education ○ Student loan repayment
Junior Achievement USA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A nonprofit that engages volunteers to help programs deliver proven, hands-on programming on financial literacy, work readiness, and entrepreneurship • Free online courses on financial literacy, entrepreneurship, and work readiness
MoneyMath: Lessons for Life	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Free four-lesson curriculum supplement developed by the Center for Entrepreneurship and Economic Education at the University of Missouri-St. Louis for grades 7-9

Money Mentors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A mentoring program through The Actuarial Foundation where mentors work directly with students, focusing on the basics of money management
Y4Y Archives: Financial Literacy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In this self-paced course on the Y4Y Archive site, you'll build the knowledge and skills necessary to make financial literacy part of your program
The 21st CCLC National Technical Assistance Center Blog and Newsletter	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Short articles that link to free blog posts, podcasts, resources, tools, and courses • Upcoming 21st CCLC NTAC activities and events designed for out-of-school time professionals, with registration links • Practice tips, a calendar of events, grab-and-go activities, and other relevant content from the 21st CCLC NTAC team and partners at government agencies and other organizations • Interactive content, such as polls, quizzes, and surveys • Introductions to subject matter experts, including the members of our Technical Assistance Advisory Committee (TAAC), U.S. Department of Education program staff, and other respected voices in the out-of-school time arena

This resource was developed in 2024 by the Nita M. Lowey 21st Century Community Learning Centers (21st CCLC) National Technical Assistance Center (NTAC), funded under a grant from the U.S. Department of Education (Department) and administered by Synergy Enterprises, Inc. under Cooperative Agreement No. 287E230009 with the Department's Office of Elementary and Secondary Education. Opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect the position or policy of the Department, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the Department or the federal government. This resource is in the public domain and is available at 21stcclcntac.org. Authorization to reproduce it in whole or in part is granted.

